Dear Friends,

The Louisiana Institute for Children in Families (LICF) will celebrate our 5th Annual Louisiana Angels Gala on Wednesday, December 4th at the WWII Museum in New Orleans, LA. Please join us, along with our 2019 Honorary Co-Chairs: Governor John Bel and First Lady Donna Edwards, and Senator Ronnie and Michelle Johns, as we recognize those in our state making a difference in the lives of children and families through foster care and adoption.

The Louisiana Angels Gala is the hallmark program of LICF and is our one and only fundraising event for the year. In addition to celebrating the Louisiana Angel nominees, the Gala raises awareness for the need of every child to know the love, safety and wellbeing of a family. With more than 4,000 Louisiana children in State's care, LICF is working to remove the policy barriers to these children finding "forever families" by connecting those affected by child welfare policy with those in a position to make a meaningful difference.

The Angels Gala funds a sizable percentage of the organization's annual operating budget, critical funding we rely upon in executing our mission. Proceeds from the Gala support our Legislative Resource Program and our Louisiana Foster Youth Intern (FYI) Program! Since we began, Louisiana has seen a record number of children adopted out of care into permanent, safe, and forever families; our 10 Foster Youth Interns have inspired us all and were instrumental in getting the Louisiana Legislature to raise the age of those in care to 21, so that no child at 18 is dropped off on a corner with nowhere to go, nowhere to turn, and no family to call their own; and our legislative briefings have brought subject matter expertise to help us all understand the impact of our state's policies. These programs were only possible because of the generosity and support of our past gala sponsors.

This year, we invite you to attend, sponsor, and be recognized at this year's gala as we celebrate 5 years as a non-profit organization and continue to make a difference in the future of Louisiana's children. Sponsorship levels are outlined on the enclosed sheet. We look forward to seeing you on Wednesday, December 4, 2019.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

MADELEINE LANDRIEU
